

Alex Minter

Tenor

ALEXANDER MINTER is currently a student at Mason Gross School of the Arts pursuing a Bachelors of Music in Music Education. Studying under the critically acclaimed tenor Richard Leech, Alexander is developing as a light lyric tenor specializing in early and baroque music. Currently Alexander sings with the Immaculate Conception Church Choir, The Tim Keyes Consort, Rutgers University Glee Club, and Kirkpatrick Choir and is the Assistant Director of the New Jersey Chamber Singers. He has appeared as a soloist with the Rutgers University Opera, Immaculate Conception Choir, The Tim Keyes Consort as well as the Rutgers University Glee Club, on various major works ranging from Handel to spirituals.

