

Brian Boeshore

Tenor

BRIAN BOESHORE, tenor, is originally from central Pennsylvania, where he was active in local theater and choral activities. Brian graduated from Susquehanna University with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education in May of 2016. Brian is currently in his second year of a Master of Music in Voice Performance and Pedagogy at Westminster Choir College, where he studies with Laura Brooks Rice. At Westminster, Brian has been active in the opera department, portraying the Circus Director in Smetana's Bartered Bride, and he will be playing Le Chevalier de la Force in this fall's production of Dialogues des Carmélites. Brian is thrilled to have the chance to perform this beautiful masterwork.
