

Caitlin Stein

Soprano

CAITLIN STEIN, soprano, is a frequent soloist throughout eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Currently, she sings with St. Andrew's Episcopal Church (Lambertville, NJ) and Cantus Novus, a motet ensemble in Yardley, PA. Past solo and ensemble singing includes St. Paul's Episcopal Church (Doylestown, PA) and Trinity Episcopal Church (Princeton, NJ). A dedicated educator, Mrs. Stein is the musical director for Murray Avenue's Drama Club in the Lower Moreland School District. She has also served as children's choir director at St. Andrew's and was formerly a general musical teacher in the Philadelphia school district and several schools throughout Bucks County. Mrs. Stein received a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from The Pennsylvania State University in 2009. She lives in Morrisville, PA with her one year old daughter Abigail and husband Mitch.

