

David Fitzpatrick

Conductor

DAVID J. FITZPATRICK serves as the Director of Music and the Arts at Doylestown Presbyterian Church, a large and vibrant music program with over 190 participants. In this capacity he conducts 2 adult choirs, three handbells choirs, a children's choir, the youth choir, and the orchestra. As the administrator of the program, David oversees three staff members, a graded children's choir program, the Celebrate the Arts performing and visual arts series, and the overall music program. David is also the newly appointed Assistant Conductor of the Bucks County Choral Society. Prior to these positions David was the Assistant Director of Music at the Cathedral Basilica of SS Peter and Paul in Philadelphia and Director of Vocal Music at St. Benedict's Prep School in Newark, NJ. David is an honors graduate of Westminster Choir College and The University of Arizona.