

Dayeong Haemi Kang

Soprano

The Korean-born Soprano, Da Yeong Kang received her Bachelor of Music degree in voice at Sook Myung Girl's University in Seoul, Korea(2008). She won a prize at The 4th Nationwide Student Music Competition in Korea. She made her Korean debut as a young Artist with City Opera in Korea (2013). Her roles there included Santuzza from Cavalleria Rusticana, Suor Angelica from Suor Angelica, Nedda from Pagliacci, Pamina from Die Zauberflote, Amelia from Simon Boccanegra, Marguerite from Faust. She performed as the soprano soloist from Elijah by Mendelssohn with full orchestra in New York.

She has also appeared in numerous recitals and concerts in USA and Korea performing works of Purcell, Handel, Mozart, Donizetti, Faure, Poulenc, Puccini, and Verdi.

In 2012, Ms. Kang received her Master of Music degree at Manhattan School of Music and is now doing her Artistic Diploma at Rutgers University under the tutelage of Eduardo Chama.