

Eileen Cooper Sedek

Soprano

Mrs. EILEEN COOPER SEDEK's performances have earned her praise for her “winsome stage presence” (Star Ledger) and “spectacular acting and vocal performance” (Stage Magazine). Her solo concert appearances include Carmina Burana, Liebeslieder Waltzer, Ein deutsches Requiem, The Messiah, the televised primetime program Wait for Me in Beijing, China, and the Daniel Ferro Vocal Program concert series in Tuscany, Italy. She has worked with Opera Modo, Pennington Players and Light Opera of New Jersey, performing roles including Noémie (Cendrillon), Lucy (The Beggar's Opera), Papagena (Die Zauberflöte), Flora (Flora), La Prima Sorella/La Sorella Cercatrice (Suor Angelica), Rosemary (How to Succeed...), Laurey (Oklahoma!), and Sharon Graham (Master Class – 2014 Best Supporting Actress, Kelsey Theatre). Mrs. Cooper Sedek earned her Master of Music degree at Rutgers University, where she received the Olga Marsano Burian Award for Outstanding Achievement in Music. She adjudicates Teen Arts Festivals throughout New Jersey and teaches privately in Montclair. EileenCooper.com

