

Eva Kastner-Puschl

Mezzo-soprano

Austrian mezzo-soprano, pianist, and pedagogue EVA KASTNER-PUSCHL has performed as soloist and in chamber ensembles throughout Europe and the United States. She has been seen with the American Bach Soloists Academy, OperaWorks, the Amherst Early Music Festival, The Princeton Festival, The Philadelphia Singers, Princeton Pro Musica, the NY Continuo Collective and most recently joined The Princeton Singers.

Ms. Kastner-Puschl serves as the organist for Witherspoon Street Presbyterian Church in Princeton and is on the voice and piano faculty of Westminster Conservatory, where she is also an accompanist. Ms. Kastner-Puschl holds a Master of Music degree in Voice Performance and Pedagogy from Westminster Choir College in Princeton, as well as diplomas in Music and Instrumental Music Education from University for Music and Performing Arts Graz (Austria) and an MBA from Karl-Franzens University Graz (Austria). She loves to share her musical gift, and desires most of all to inspire in her audiences and students the same great passion and love for music she herself feels. She is delighted to be joining the Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs for their Duruflé program in April 2016.
