Alto

KATIE KERSHAW recently graduated from The College of New Jersey where she earned a degree in Music Education with a concentration in voice. While at TCNJ, she studied under Suzanne Hickman and was an active member of the TCNJ Chorale. She was in turn afforded the opportunity to perform at venues such as St. Bart's and Lincoln Center in New York City. She has also appeared as a guest performer with the Mendelssohn Club of Philadelphia. Ms. Kershaw was a member of TCNJ's Lyric Theater and appeared in Purcell's Dido and Aeneas, Gluck's Orpheo ed Euridice, and in several opera scenes from Bizet's Carmen, Mozart's Die Zauberflöte, and Strauss' Die Fledermaus. Currently, she lives in south Jersey and teaches middle school music in Pemberton Township. Ms. Kershaw also provides private voice and piano lessons, directs the Rancocas Valley Singers community chorus, and serves as a resident music director for Moorestown Theater Company.
