

Kevin Schneider

Tenor

KEVIN SCHNEIDER is currently studying Music Education at Westminster Choir College. As a member of Westminster Choir, Westminster Kantorei, and Westminster Symphonic Choir, he has performed all over the northeast, including performances with the Philadelphia Orchestra and New York Philharmonic, as well as touring through Texas, Oklahoma, and China. In addition, he is also a member of the Philadelphia Symphonic Choir, and just performed Bernstein's Kaddish and Rossini's Stabat Mater this past January. Originally from South Windsor, Connecticut, Kevin studied vocal performance at Central Connecticut State University. During his time in Connecticut, he performed with many composers, such as Eric Whitacre, Ola Gjielo, Dan Forrest, as well as many local composers with the Grammy nominated group, Voce. He has also performed across the world, going as far as China, Japan, and Spain on tours with CCSU's University Singers.
