

Kristen Markowski

Soprano

KRISTEN MARKOWSKI received her B.M. in Vocal Music Education from Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University. At Mason Gross, Kristen studied with Professor Judith Nicosia and was a member of the Rutgers University Choir, Kirkpatrick Choir, and Voorhees Choir. With these choirs, Kristen has performed at Lincoln Center in NYC and other performance venues throughout New Jersey. She is now the Director of Choral Activities at Montville Township High School teaching Concert Choir, Music Theory, and Broadway Workshop as well as vocally directing for the Spring Musical (Legally Blonde, Pippin). Kristen is also co-vocal director and accompanist for OnStage Theater Camp located in Clark, NJ. Past musicals include: Mary Poppins, Bye Bye Birdie, Thoroughly Modern Millie, The Pajama Game, The Wedding Singer, Guys and Dolls, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Willy Wonka Jr, Beauty and the Beast Jr, Annie Jr, Alice and Wonderland Jr, Camp Rock, and Seussical Jr.

Kristen currently performs with the Central Jersey Choral Society under the direction of Christopher Loeffler as the soprano soloist. Past performances include: Elijah, the Mozart Requiem, Vespers Solemnes, Brahms Liebeslieder Waltzes, and St. Paul Oratorio.