

Lisa Reifschneider

Mezzo

Lisa Reifschneider, mezzosoprano, holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from the College of New Jersey where she studied voice with soprano, Dr. Suzanne Hickman. In recent years, she has studied voice with lyric soprano, Rochelle Ellis. Lisa has taught vocal music at Woodfern Elementary School in Hillsborough, NJ for the past 23 years. She sang under the direction of Dr. Lyn Ransom Guilmartin with Voices Chorale and Sotto Voce as a choral singer and soloist for 13 years and currently sings with the chamber choir, Cantus Novus, under the direction of W. Ed McCall. She also enjoys performing in community musical theatre and basically enjoys any excuse to sing.

