

Madison Bowling

Mezzo-soprano

MADISON BOWLING is very excited for this opportunity to perform with PSMA! Madison is a junior Music Education major, who is interested in pursuing a career in vocal performance as a mezzo soprano. Recent performances include productions with the Westminster Opera Theatre, the Lindsey Christiansen Art Song Festival, and national and international trips with Westminster Choir to Kansas

City, MO for the national ACDA conference, and China to perform in the International Students Choral Festival Beijing 2018. She is looking forward to performances with the New York Philharmonic, singing the Mozart Requiem, and spending her second summer at the Spoleto Festival USA followed by attending the Institute for Young Dramatic Voices in Reno, Nevada. She hopes you enjoy this performance of the Bach Magnificat and Vivaldi Gloria!
