

Mike Williams

Tenor

Tenor MIKE WILLIAMS has made himself known as an in demand church musician solo and choral singer. A recent graduate of Westminster Choir College, he has performed a wide range of concert works including Haydn's "Die Jahreszeiten" (Choir) with the Philadelphia Orchestra, Bach's "Johannes passion" (solo) with the Illinois Bach Festival and Beethoven's "Symphony No. 9" (solo), with the Princeton Symphony Orchestra and many more. He has performed under the baton of Yannick Nezet Seguin, Sir Simon Rattle, Daniele Gatti, Dame Jane Glover, Nathalie Stutzmann, and Christian Macelaru. Recently, he was featured as a soloist on Westminster Kantorei's new disc "Lumina" which was conducted by Dr. Amanda Quist.