

Nicole Jodoin

Soprano

Soprano, NICOLE MICHELLE JODOIN, is currently a Masters of Arts student, with a voice concentration at Montclair State University, John J. Cali School of Music. She completed her undergraduate degree at Montclair State University in 2016. Vivaldi's Gloria is her first project with the Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs. At Montclair State University, she has performed in many different opera roles and scenes including The Princess in L'enfant et les sortilèges, Stefanina in Il govedì di grasso, Musetta in La Bohème, Clarice in Il mondo della luna, Romeo in I Capuleti e I Montecchi, and Alexandra in Regina. Nicole has been a member of four choirs during her education at Montclair State University; the Chorale, as a singer and student manager, University Singers who regularly performs with the New Jersey Symphony, Prima Voce and Vocal Accord which performed in London with the Richard Alston Dance Company at Saddlers Wells. She is currently a student of Prof. Karen Driscoll. Nicole has also been selected to attend the American Institute of Musical Studies (AIMS) in Graz, Austria this summer.