

Sean Clancy

Tenor

SEAN CLANCY (Tenor) is thrilled to be coming back to PSMA as a soloist. Last spring, you may remember him singing the solos for Haydn's Lord Nelson Mass and Mozart's Coronation Mass. He has also performed as a soloist with New Jersey Master Chorale and Choral Arts of Southern New Jersey. Sean has had the opportunity to sing with professional ensembles such as: Manhattan Chorale, The Princeton Festival, Philadelphia Symphonic Choir, The Philadelphia Singers, and more. In addition to performing classically, he has performed in leading roles with various regional theaters in NJ. Mr. Clancy holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from Rowan University. Outside of singing professionally, Sean is the director of K-5 General/Vocal music at Leeds Avenue School in Pleasantville, NJ.
