

Jessica Kerler

Alto

JESSICA KERLER is a graduate of Westminster Choir College, where she received her Bachelor's degree in Voice Performance. She was an avid member of the Westminster Opera Theatre, with credits including Falstaff, Cendrillon, and The Medium. Additionally, she was a member of the prestigious Westminster Choir. Through this ensemble, she performed at the Spoleto Festival USA in productions of Kát'a Kabanová, John Adam's El Niño, and the American premiere of Das Mädchen mit den Schwefelhölzchen. Jessica is currently a member of the Philadelphia Symphonic Choir, a group which performs masterworks with the Philadelphia Orchestra, and was a founding member of the Glassbrook Vocal Ensemble. When she is not performing, Jessica is a voice teacher. She is thrilled to make her debut as the alto soloist in Messiah at this reading!
