

Liam McWha

Boy Soprano

LIAM McWha is a boy soprano who sings with the Princeton Boychoir under the direction of Fred Meads. With Princeton Boychoir, Liam performed on Michael Bublé's Christmas in the City special and the Boheme Opera NJ's production of Hansel & Gretel. Liam was the understudy for the role of Harry in Britten's opera, Albert Herring, with The Princeton Festival last summer. Liam also was a member of the NJ Elementary School Honor Choir last year. Liam is a 6th grader, and in addition to singing, he swims competitively for the Princeton Tiger Aquatics Club and loves to golf.
