

Norah Wasden

Soprano

NORAH WASDEN is an early childhood music educator and singer. She performs with the Princeton Pro Musica choir and chamber choir. She has previously sung with the Choral Arts Society of Washington, the Virginia Consort, and was a featured soloist for the Washington DC Temple Choir. She studied voice at the University of Richmond with Dr. Jeffery Riehl and Dr. Jim Smith. Norah currently teaches music at Princeton Montessori School and Pennington Presbyterian Nursery School. She loves time with her husband and three children and tap dancing.