

Colleen Kinderman

Soprano

COLLEEN KINDERMAN is an operatic soprano who regularly performs and maintains a successful studio of voice students throughout New Jersey. She holds a Masters of Music in Voice Pedagogy and Performance, graduating with distinction from Westminster Choir College. During her time at Westminster she performed at such venues as the Kimmel Center, Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart and Carnegie Hall with the Westminster Symphonic Choir. A New Jersey native, Colleen received her Bachelor of Arts in Music from Muhlenberg College, graduating magna cum laude with emphases in Music History, Theory and Performance. There she received such distinctions as the Dorothy and Dexter Baker Foundation Award in the Performing Arts as well as the Muhlenberg College Summer Research Grant for her work on the female Czech composer Vítězslava Kaprálová.

Her operatic experience ranges from performances with Princeton Friends of Opera, Opera Slavica, Westminster Opera Theater, Opera MODO, New Jersey Opera Theater and the Ameropa International Chamber Music Festival in Prague, Czech Republic, among others. Her musical theater credits include a wide variety of productions in the tri-state area.

Colleen is also a frequent performer of oratorio and sacred music and cantors regularly at St. John the Evangelist in Lambertville, NJ. Colleen is also on the roster of the Philadelphia Symphonic Choir and has the privilege of performing with the Philadelphia Orchestra under the direction of Yannick Nézet-Séguin at notable venues such as The Kimmel Center and Carnegie Hall.

A seasoned educator, Colleen has worked and studied with some of the country's leading voice teachers and pedagogues including Dr. Scott McCoy, Dr. Christopher Arneson and Margaret Cusack. She is certified in Somatic Voicework™ and is a proud member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing. Her students have gone on to such prestigious institutions as Westminster Choir College, NYU Berklee College of Music, New England Conservatory, among others. Colleen and her family are based in Lambertville, NJ.