

Julie Perri

Mezzo-soprano

JULIE PERRI, mezzo-soprano, holds a baccalaureate degree in voice performance from West Chester University of Pennsylvania (WCU). As a soloist, she has been featured in performances with the Lawrenceville Community Chorus, WCU Renaissance performance group Collegium Musicum, WCU's Mastersingers, the Presbyterian Church of West Chester Chamber Chorus, the Suspensions a cappella group, and others. Her professional experience extends into musical theatre, portraying roles with Warner Brothers' The Polar Express in actor and dance tracks, the national tour of Jurassic Quest, Sesame Place Philadelphia, and the Limelight Theatre Company. Julie also has credits in directing children's theatre performances including Matilda, Newsies, and Once Upon this Island to name a few. Currently, Julie is a dedicated early childhood music educator and serves on staff as the Alto section leader for the Presbyterian Church of Lawrenceville. She is thrilled to be singing with the Princeton Society of Musical Amateurs and looks forward to performing with the group.
