

Noel Werner

Conductor

NOEL WERNER is in his eighteenth year as the Director of Music at Nassau Presbyterian Church, Princeton, where he oversees a vibrant ministry that includes several choirs, instrumental groups, and visiting artists in the areas of poetry, visual arts, dance, and theater. A past Dean of the Central NJ Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Noel is also active in the Hymn Society and the Presbyterian Association of Musicians. He holds degrees from Westminster Choir College, Indiana University Bloomington, and Christian Theological Seminary, and lives in Dayton, NJ with his wife, Rev. Wendi Werner and two daughters, Sophie and Emily. It has been a number of years since Noel last conducted for PSMA, and he is excited to be back to present Haydn's Creation.
