

Joseph Mayon

Tenor

JOSEPH MAYON, Tenor, has performed in opera, concerts, oratorios, recitals, and musical theater internationally and throughout the United States. A Rahway, NJ resident and Louisiana native, Mayon attended Interlochen Arts Academy, Louisiana State University, University of Denver, and Brooklyn College Conservatory. Mayon has performed with New Jersey Opera Theater, Taconic Opera, Rome Festival Opera, Hudson Opera Theater, New York Dramatic Voices, TUNDI's Wagner in Vermont Festival, New York Opera Forum, West Side Opera, Underworld Opera, Harmony Project NYC, and Vera Musica. Roles include Siegmund (DIE WALKÜRE), Florestan (FIDELIO), Parsifal (PARSIFAL Act 2), Pollione (NORMA), Siegfried (GÖTTERDÄMMERUNG Prologue & Act 3), Siegfried (SIEGFRIED ACT 1 & Act 3), Luigi (IL TABARRO), Idomeneo (IDOMENEO), Carlo (GIOVANNA D'ARCO), & Loge (DAS RHEINGOLD). Upcoming performances include Pollione (NORMA) & Siegmund (DIE WALKÜRE) with New Jersey Opera Theater, Siegfried Cover (Götterdämmerung) with TUNDI Wagner in Vermont Festival, and the Tenor Soloist (Verdi Requiem) with The Masterwork Chorus. Mayon is the Founder and Artistic Director of NEW JERSEY OPERA THEATER at The Union County Performing Arts Center. He is also the founder of THE MAYON SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS LLC, teaching musical theater after school programs and private voice. Mayon is the choral director at St. John the Apostle School in Clark, NJ.