

Rebekah Nawalinski

Soprano

REBEKAH NAWALINSKI, a versatile soprano whose journey seamlessly blends her passion for music with her dedication to speech-language pathology. With a Bachelor's in Music Education from Westminster Choir College and a Master's in Communication Sciences and Disorders from William Paterson University, Rebekah's expertise extends beyond the stage. Formerly a vocal music teacher, Rebekah's talents now contribute to several local ensembles, including Princeton Pro Musica. Currently, she finds joy in sharing her music with diverse audiences while pursuing new opportunities to enrich her career in the realm of music.