

Daniel Piver, tenor, is from Long Island, New York. He currently serves as tenor section leader at Lamington Presbyterian Church, a position he has held for three years. In this role, he has appeared as tenor soloist in Handel's Messiah and as baritone soloist in Fauré's Requiem.

Through his studies at Westminster Choir College, Daniel has performed as a tenor soloist in Heinrich Schütz's "O süßer Jesu Christ" and appeared in the opera chorus for Die Fledermaus. He received a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from Westminster Choir College and is currently a candidate for a Master's of Music in Choral Conducting at Westminster Choir College, where he studies voice with Ms. Faith Esham and Dr. Christopher Arneson.