

Matthew LaPine

Conductor

Matthew J. LaPine is an active performer, educator, conductor, and composer in central New Jersey. He is the Founder and Artistic Director of Rise Up Community Arts, a non-profit organization whose purpose is to enrich lives through human interaction using music as our commonality. Mr. LaPine is Choral Director at Bernards High School, where his choral ensembles have received national acclaim and have performed in various locations along the East Coast. Mr. LaPine is also a private voice teacher and guest clinician/workshop leader for choirs and music organizations throughout New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and he was recently named a quarter finalist for the 2026 GRAMMY Music Educator Award.